

Wine Country Acrylic Workshop

Paint among the vineyards with

Robert Reynolds

Award winning artist, author and educator

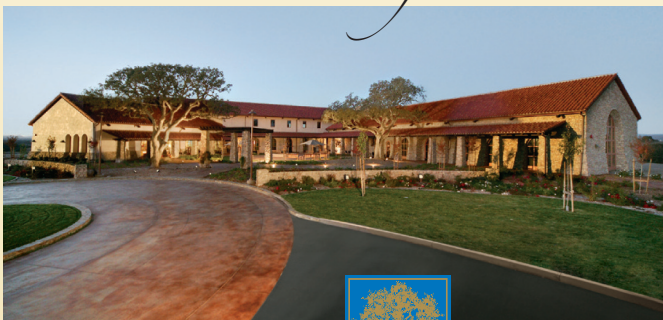

July 11, 12 & 13, 2012

Artist Robert Reynolds loves the landscape and lives to paint its changing moods. He embraces subjects that he finds evocative and meaningful, and his ability to celebrate nature's spirituality is clearly evident throughout his work.

The paintings of this San Luis Obispo native are in art collections throughout the United States and abroad. Images of his paintings have graced the pages and covers of national and international art magazines. In addition to his own two published art books, his paintings are in 21 other books, including six Splash editions. During his tenure as professor of art at Cal Poly University, he received the President Arts Award and Cal Poly Distinguished Teaching Award. The United States Postal Service chose Reynolds to do the artwork for a stamp commemorating the famed Hearst Castle. He was also commissioned to design the San Luis Obispo County Seal. Mr. Reynolds is listed in a number of "Who's Who" books, including Who's Who in American Art and Who's Who in America.
