Artist's Signature

THE INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF ACRYLIC PAINTERS (ISAP), is proud to announce that Mary Todd Beam will judge the Third Signature Online Member Show for Awards.

Mary Beam is a popular workshop instructor, juror and elected member of the American Watercolor Society, where she became a Dolphin Fellow and won their Gold Medal of Honor in 1996. Other medals have included the Ralph Fabri Medal, the Ohio Watercolor Society's Silver and Bronze medals. Other awards include the Lone Star award, Top Juror's Award in the San Diego Watercolor Society's Annual Exhibit. She has also won the Experimental Award in the National Watercolor Society's Annual in Los Angeles.

She has been the juror for state and national exhibits, such as the National Watercolor Society's Annual and the Rocky Mountain Annual exhibits. Her work was chosen for inclusion in several major exhibits including the National Academy of Design's Biennial in New York City.

She has several books to her credit. Her latest from North Light Books is entitled The Creative Edge and a newly updated Video is available from Creative Catalyst Productions, entitled An Acrylic Journey.

As wife, mother, painter and teacher she maintains two studios, one in Ohio and the other in the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee. She enjoys exploring nature as the basis of her interpretive painting and cherishes the hours she shares with the mountains, streams and forest.
